

RESTORING THE PATIENT-PROVIDER CONNECTION

As a Certified Primary Care Medical Home, our providers build strong provider-patient relationships to develop an understanding of each patient's unique circumstances, medical history, and preferences. Armed with this knowledge, our providers offer treatment plans tailored to individual patient needs. These connections are immensely valuable in fostering open communication, shared-decision making, and empowering patients to become partners in advocating for their own well-being. Get to know our Florence provider:

Jetta Valle, FNP

Jetta Valle is a board-certified Family Nurse Practitioner. She holds a Master of Science in Nursing degree and a post-master's certificate as a Family Nurse Practitioner. With her extensive knowledge and expertise, she has been providing top-notch healthcare for over two decades. Throughout her career, Jetta has gained valuable experience in various healthcare settings, including as an assistant professor of nursing, home-based primary care, substance use disorder treatment, and internal medicine. With her compassionate and personalized approach, Jetta is committed to helping you live your healthiest life.

Board-Certified • Family Nurse Practitioner